

Hardy Mill School Offer

How Hardy Mill Primary school approaches the teaching of children with Special Educational Needs and/or a Disability (SEND)

All pupils in school receive quality first teaching, this means that a range of teaching and learning styles and that appropriate learning objectives are set for all children with a curriculum matched to their needs.

What support will there be for my child's overall well-being?

Your child's overall well-being is paramount and at the centre of all we do at Hardy Mill Primary school. Please refer to our Waves of Intervention map (Appendix A) for our staged approach to supporting social, mental and emotional health.

How will my child be assessed?

Class teachers have termly meetings with the Head teacher to ensure that every pupil is monitored regularly and support and/or intervention is put in place of need. All teachers check how well pupils understand in all lessons. Teachers work collaboratively to ensure judgements on progress are accurate. These judgements are moderated at school, cluster and LA level. The Head teacher, senior leadership team and subject leaders all monitor lessons and pupil progress to ensure every pupil makes progress in all areas of the curriculum. This is carried out through a well mapped cycle of monitoring.

What should I do if I think my child has a Special Educational Need or disability?

If you think that your child has a Special Educational Need and/or a Disability (SEND), please make your concern known to the school by speaking or emailing your child's class teacher initially who will raise this concern with the SEND lead in school. The concern will be discussed with you and following this discussion, school will carry out the necessary checks to ensure needs are met. We will share our findings with you and agree the next steps for your child.

How do Hardy Mill Primary school involve children and their parents with their education and the decision making process?

Meetings are held between class teachers and parents where and when appropriate, via face to face meetings, phone calls or Microsoft Teams. Children identified as having a special educational or behavioural need will be included on their class Provision Map. Where a child's need becomes more complex and outside agency involvement is required, an Early Help Form will be completed to ensure that multi-agencies can work effectively together. The Early Help assesses all aspects of the child's learning and development from birth and the impact SEND has on the child and the family unit. A lead professional will be identified to act on your behalf who will ensure all actions are completed. Meetings to review the actions set out on an Early Help are arranged between professionals and parents every 8 – 10 weeks. A child who has an Education Health Care Plan (EHCP) or long term specific support will have an individual Learning Passport which follows them through school. Half termly personal short term targets are created, when possible taken from the child's EHCP, and are evaluated and updated half termly. The Learning Passport is completed by the class teacher, with support of the SENDCO. Parents are invited into school half termly, by their child's class teacher, to discuss progress made over the half term and new Learning Passport targets set for the next half term.
